

EVENT PROGRAMME

14 June 2018

Cardiff Met University, Llandaff Campus, Western Avenue, CF5 2YB

8.30 - 9.30 Registration and expo

09.30 - 09.40 Welcome
Professor Olwen Moseley (Dean at Cardiff School of Art and Design)

Session 1 (09.40 – 11.00) – The offsite timber opportunity Moderated by: Gary Newman (CEO Woodknowledge Wales)

09.40 – 10.05 AM Keynote address: Embedding lean thinking in offsite manufacturing. The MAKAR experience.
Neil Sutherland – MAKAR Construction Ltd
10.05 – 10.25 Offsite manufacturing and procuring for quality
Jon Bootland (CEO Passivhaus Trust and founder of the Building Performance Network)
10.25 – 11.00 Exhibitor response to the quality agenda (2-minutes each)

Break and expo

Session 2 (11.30 – 13.00) - Defining better Chaired by: Jon Bootland (CEO Passivhaus Trust and founder of the Building Performance Network)

11.30 – 11.50 Healthy homes, improving well-being and the role of timber
Christiane Lellig - Wood for Good
11.50 – 12.10 Assessing thermal, acoustic and fire performance in reality
Dr John Littlewood, SuRBe, Cardiff Met
12.10 – 12.30 Carbon budgets and the opportunity for timber industries
Dr Jannik Gieseckam - University of Leeds
12.30 – 13.00 Panel Debate

Lunch and expo

Session 3 (14.00 – 15.30) - Delivering better Chaired by: Doug Hughes (CEO Hughes Architects)

14.00 – 14.20 PM Keynote address: Delivering better buildings through Cross Laminated Timber
Anthony Thistleton-Smith - Waugh Thistleton Architects
14.20 – 14.35 Skills for OSM and Improving building performance
Prof Sam Allwinkle – Edinburgh Napier University
14.35 – 14.50 Delivering quality in a difficult market
Daniel Ball - LivEco
14.50 - 15.10 Panel Debate

Break and expo

Session 4 (15.30 – 16.45) - Driving change through policy and action Chaired by: Shayne Hembrow (Deputy CEO Wales and West Housing)

15.30 – 16.00 Ministerial address:
Rebecca Evans AM - Minister for Housing and Regeneration
16.00 – 16.10 Launch of the Home-Grown Homes Project
Cllr James Evans, Portfolio Holder for Housing, Powys County Council
16.10 – 16.30 Delivering the Home-Grown Homes Project - Innovation through collaboration
Gary Newman – CEO, Woodknowledge Wales
16.30 CLOSE

Event supporters